SWINGIN' DOWNTOWN and FAMILY FUN NIGHT

GRAND SUCCESS!

Downtown Roseville's first parking garage was opened with a 1940's themed celebration Tuesday night, October 30. A large crowd was treated to samples from local restaurants, a swing dance performance by Northern California the Conservatory, and the ribbon cutting ceremony. Other event highlights included presentations by Assistant City Manager John Sprague, Mayor Jim Gray, project partner Abe Alizedah of Kobra Properties, and Planning and Redevelopment Director Paul Richardson, Mark Wolinski and Sean McCuen were given the honor of cutting the ribbon prior to members of the City Council, and other invited dignitiaries, climbing aboard classic cars and leading a parade into the sparkling new facility.

Thanks to the Downtown Roseville Merchants Association and Kobra Properties for partnering with the Redevelopment Agency to make this historic celebration a success!

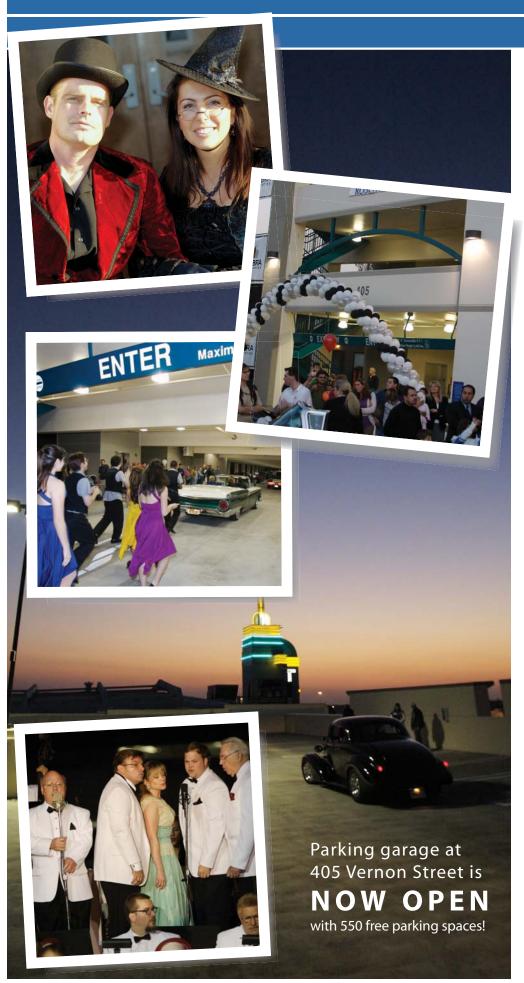

Roseville's 46th Annual Holiday Parade

Bring your family, friends and neighbors to enjoy Roseville's 46th annual holiday parade at 10 a.m. on Saturday, November 17, 2007. The parade will begin at the intersection of Riverside, Douglas, and Vernon. The route proceeds east along Vernon Street, turns right at Folsom Road and ends behind the Roseville Square Shopping Center.

Parade entries include marching bands, floats, animals, cars, clowns, schools, church groups and local businesses. Come early to stake-out your favorite viewing area.

The 2007 Holiday Parade is sponsored by the Roseville Chamber of Commerce, the City of Roseville and the Roseville Press Tribune. For additional information, please call the Chamber of Commerce at 916-783-8136 or visit their website at www.rosevillechamber.com.
