Roseville Parks, Trails & Bikeways Map

Recommended Outings

Miner’s & False Ravine Trails
Catch the trail at Sculpture Park (#65 behind the Home Depot on N. Sunrise Ave) and go through some of Roseville’s most beautiful open space and wetland areas. Follow the Miner’s Ravine Trail all the way to Sierra College Boulevard, or take the False Ravine Trail (map grid area G3). Both trips are nearly three miles one-way.

Maidu Regional Park
For a perfect Saturday with the family, visit the Maidu Museum & Historic Site (#47). Take a tour of the ancient Maidu Indian village site to see stunning petroglyphs and bedrock mortars. Then, catch the trail next to the museum and travel through the interior of the park, or around the outside, for a two mile loop.

Pleasant Grove Creek Trail (south branch)
Take the south branch of the Pleasant Grove Creek Trail at Veteran’s Memorial Park (#74) and ride through beautiful open space and majestic oak trees. The one-way trip between Veteran’s Memorial Park and Blue Oaks Park (#5) is one mile.

Share the Road

If you’re out for a drive and see a bicycle on the street, slow down and make some room. A bicyclist has the same right to be on the road as a motorist.

Bike Locker Rentals

Bike lockers make it easy to cycle for work, school or errands, and are great for use in combination with riding transit or carpooling. Roseville offers on-demand secure lockers at several locations around town. eLockers are shown on the map with the symbol. These are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

In addition, some bike lockers are available for yearly lease to individuals as part of commute to work or school and are shown with the symbol. Learn more at roseville.ca.us/bikelockers.

Bike Commuting

Bicycling commutes is an effective, healthy, and inexpensive way to travel to work. Even if you are only riding a couple days a week, it is a great way to exercise, save money on fuel and vehicle maintenance, reduce air pollution, lower your stress level, and have fun.

All Roseville Transit buses have bike racks that are convenient and easy to use. Combined with transit, cycling can be a part of a commute over a longer distance. Learn about Roseville Transit by visiting roseville.ca.us/transit or calling (916) 745-7560.
